

I wish, I want, and I need it, but ... in rural NY here, it is impossible. Physical plant is too old, Verizon doesn't keep current, can't even keep electric fences from damaging their services with analog lines; digital would be a dismal failure unless Verizon got off their butts & improved services, plant, and cabling.

An irate consumer